

ZUELLIG FAMILY FOUNDATION
Guidelines on PRC CPD Application for Training Activities and Programs
December 2020 (latest revision March 26, 2021)

1. Overview

- a. This document outlines the guidelines on the Professional Regulation Commission (PRC) Continuing Professional Development (CPD) application for training activities and programs highlighting the requirements and timeline of submission with a lead time for processing.
- b. This document underscores the important provisions on the guidelines on the matrix of CPD activities, revised CPD forms, and CPD glossary (Resolution No. 1244) released by the PRC.
- c. This document complements the guidelines on the issuance of training certificates (s.2020) through proper branding, regulation, and monitoring of all issued training certificates of the foundation.

2. Scope

- a. These guidelines apply to all units conducting leadership training activities and programs.
- b. These guidelines apply to all training activities provided by ZFF regardless of the training platform used – online, blended, or face to face.

3. Institutional Qualifications/Recognition (PRC-CPD Council Accreditation)

ZFF is a PRC CPD provider under the Council of Medicine Accreditation No. 2012-08¹

4. Guidelines Coverage and Principles

- a. The host unit shall be in charge of the preparation of required documents and submission to ZFFI QA and Certification unit represented by the QA and Certification Associate (hereinafter referred to as “ZFFI PRC CPD support staff”) at least forty-five (45) calendar days before the conduct of the training activity. Failure to comply within the prescribed timeline would mean non-enrollment of the training activity for CPD accreditation. Table 1 summarizes the list of requirements with the corresponding PRC form.

¹ Application for CPD units to other professional councils is through ZFF’s council of medicine accreditation using PRC online.

Table 1: List of Requirements for PRC CPD Application

- b. ZFFI PRC CPD support staff shall review for correctness and completeness of submitted documents before endorsing to the administrative support group for processing of application at the PRC Central Office. If additional requirements are needed, ZFFI PRC CPD support staff will notify the host unit for compliance.
- c. ZFFI PRC CPD support staff shall provide updates to the host unit on the status of the PRC CPD application. Approved CPD units shall be reflected in the certificates to be released to the host unit. It is, however, important to consider that the CPD units shall be awarded by the PRC after assessing the submitted requirements. Should there be a delay in the confirmation of CPD units from their end, the host unit may request for a temporary training certificate for participants to ZFFI to be given five (5) days after the conduct of the training activity.
- d. Host unit shall prepare the Completion Report² of PRC CPD accredited training using the prescribed PRC Format (Annex E). Attached to the report are the Registration Sheet (Annex F) and Attendance Sheet (Annex G). All documents should be submitted to the ZFFI PRC CPD support staff ten (10) calendar days after the conduct of the activity.
- e. ZFFI PRC CPD support staff shall review for correctness and completeness of submitted completion report before endorsing to the administrative support group for processing of application at the PRC Central Office. If an additional requirement is needed, ZFFI PRC CPD support staff will notify the host unit for compliance.
- f. Training activities not enrolled for CPD accreditation (including all technical training activities co-hosted by ZFF with other institution/s) can still be applied under self-directed learning (SDL). It is, however, important for the host unit to advise the participants or resource speakers to include the required supporting documents before filing to PRC. The applicant must also be reminded that training activities filed under SDL is subject to further assessment of PRC and only 30% of the required CPD units for the compliance period can be earned through SDL (Example: Only 13.5 CPD units will be taken from SDL if 45 units is required for the applicant). Table 2 summarizes the list of supporting documents under SDL.
